

Danderine

Grew This Hair

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT.

Little Frances Marie Knowlton is the daughter of Dr. E. W. Knowlton, the discoverer of this great hair-growing remedy, and her beautiful hair was grown wholly by the use of this tonic.

This little girl had no more hair than the average child before using Danderine, while now she has the longest and most beautiful head of golden hair ever possessed by a child of her age in the world.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy ever discovered. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a six bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made.

NOW at all druggists, in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

Latest Photo of FRANCES MARIE KNOWLTON, Age Four Years. 580 Garfield Boulevard, Chicago.

The Times' Daily Short Story.

The Golden Calf

(Copyright, 1906, by T. C. McClure.)

The girl had stood silently at the window for some few minutes, watching the long, slanting lines of rain that came driving down from the dun colored clouds in the sky. With every savage gust of wind the dead leaves came swirling down, and the giant elms in the street tossed their branches in wild distress.

The strife of the storm without seemed typical of the stormy combat that was going on in her heart—a warfare between her inclinations and the dictates of sense, calm judgment.

The man sat quietly by the library table, his keen eyes fixed steadfastly on the girl and a grim expression, half expectancy and half iron determination, curving the corners of his mouth.

The girl turned from the window, and from her eyes he learned the conflict was not yet brought to an issue. She spoke slowly, with something like appeal to her tones.

"Must you go tomorrow?" she asked. "Tomorrow," he replied inexorably. "And—and you want an answer before you go?"

"An affirmative answer," he corrected smilingly. "Don't go out there, Tom," she said, with a queer little quaver in her voice. "I must," he said simply. "It's a magnificent field. It offers everything I want—money, power and position."

His eyes burned as he spoke, but they softened as they rested on the girl's face. "Think what it means," he finished.

"You're sure you want all this—the money and the power?" she asked. "Absolutely certain," said he cheerfully.

She turned to the window again and

Catarrhal Gastritis

"For two years I was in a very bad condition. I was treated by a number of eminent physicians for chronic catarrhal gastritis and dilatation of the stomach, and obtained no relief. I grew gradually worse, my breathing was so difficult at times that I thought I would die. My heart was in very bad condition from poor circulation and pressure of the dilated stomach. I decided it was only a matter of a very short time with me. I was advised to try Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure, and before I had finished taking one bottle of the medicine I felt like a new being. I took eight bottles of the medicine, and am entirely cured, for a matter of about $8.00 in the face of two hundreds spent in the two years before without relief."

A. D. SLACK, Master Mechanic of the I. & G. N. R. R., San Antonio, Texas. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

Figured Fabrics—Dyed Laces on Smart Lawn Gowns.

This promise to be a figured season, and thus far plaids and barred designs and coin spots lead. Sometimes both plaid and spots are found in the same design, and again one or the other is seen against a plain background. Plain tones, however, always have a certain popularity.

Directorate coats are very much to the fore. An original juxtaposition was achieved in a model of striped gray cloth, the lines of the jacket being placed perpendicularly and those of the skirt diagonally.

Dyed Valenciennes lace on white and pale tinted lawn dresses is one of the novelties of the season. These pastel laces are often used with black velvet ribbon or black lace.

STRIPED TAIL COATS—$600, $350.

A new color which has come very strongly into vogue is called "vieux appret." Just why the French have applied such a name is undecided, as an old sprig is hardly a thing of beauty as to coloring. The color itself is rich and beautiful, and shown in ostrich tips, paradise plumes, velvets and ribbons it is delightful.

The voile gown in the cut is of dove gray in a fascinating shadow stripe and is trimmed with bands of the material cut bias. The sleeves are distinctly novel and can be made either in three-quarter or full length.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Showers of Fish.

Showers of fish and frogs are tolerably well authenticated. The living creatures were probably taken from their native element by a cyclone or water-spout, were transported through the air and finally dropped with the rain.

Hay fever or malaria leaves the system in a weakened condition. Consequently winter colds come easily and are hard to get rid of. Prevent them or cure them with Scott's Emulsion.

ALL DRUGGISTS, 50c. AND $1.00.

DISCUSS NEW FRENCH TAX

Small Holders of Rentes Cause Difficulty

INVESTORS RECEIVING

Less Than 15000. 3,039,525 — Lessened Tax Proposed on Big Families—Man and Wife With More Than Six Children to Be Exempt.

Paris, March 22.—The introduction of the income tax bill has resulted in the publication of many interesting statistics drawn up either by opponents of the measure with the view of pointing out the difficulties, or by supporters of the scheme who desire to extend its scope.

M. Contant, for instance, is to propose the insertion of a clause increasing the suggested income tax by 1 per cent in the case of bachelors and spinsters and widows and widowers without children.

Parents who have large families to provide for, M. Contant would relieve in the following proportions when their total income in the case of workmen is under 4,500 francs:

Those having two children would have their taxes reduced by 10 per cent, those with three by 30 per cent, those with four by 20 per cent, those with five by 40 per cent, those with six by 50 per cent, while a man and wife possessing more than six would be entirely freed from taxation.

Detractors call attention to the enormous small holders of the rentes, about whom minute inquiries will have to be instituted in order to discover whether they can be made liable for the new tax under any of the schedules. They show that there are 1,039,525 investors in government rentes who receive less than 4,500 francs annually, 601,234 draw less than 1,500 and no fewer than 1,553, 229 less than 1,200, while of the 634,298 persons receive under 1,500 annually.

On the other hand, many legislators favor further additions, so as to gather into the fiscal net at least some of those who now escape lightly.

MAIL ROBBER CONFESSES.

Man Arrested for Stealing $400,000 Sack Exposes Others.

Paris, March 22.—The man named Buttolles, arrested here recently with $42,000 in American securities in his possession under the suspicion that he was an accomplice of the thieves who stole a mail bag containing about $400,000 on the French line steamer Saville, which left New York February 4, arrived at Havre March 21, has made a confession, implicating a gang of international robbers, as the result of which other arrests are expected immediately. It developed yesterday that the majority of the stolen securities are not negotiable. The stolen sack was one of thirty-three hundred, and just how it was taken from the general collection is a mystery.

It has been virtually established that the registered mail matter was abstracted after the bag reached the railroad station here.

M. Symian, sub-secretary of the post office, announces that the discovery of the robbery was made two weeks ago and that an investigation resulted in the arrest of Buttolles. Magistrate Leydet, who was charged with the task of ferreting out the thieves, called to New York, asking for the value of the stolen matter, the names of the senders and of those to whom it was addressed.

Postmaster Willeux will make an investigation. He says he has not been officially notified of the loss of the pouch, but had been a despatch from Paris telling of the disappearance of the sack.

MERCHANT FOR HALF CENTURY.

A. A. Brooks, Bethel, Dies at the Age of 82 Years.

Bethel, March 22.—A. A. Brooks, the oldest merchant of this place, died at noon yesterday at his home, following a siege of failing health which had been upon him for two or three years, and which had confined him to the house the greater part of this winter. He was 82 years of age, having been born October 18, 1824. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Chedel of Gayville and Mrs. S. M. Washburn of this place.

Mr. Brooks was born here. His education was received in the public schools. Until 18 years of age he was engaged in farming, then taking up a mercantile career. After working for others for several years, in 1856 he opened a general store in Gayville, which he conducted until 1875, then selling out and removing to Bethel, accompanied by G. S. Montgomery. They purchased the business of Merrick Sylvester and jointly conducted for three years. Then Mr. Montgomery left, and the partnership which existed up to Mr. Brooks' death, Brooks & Washburn, was formed.

Mr. Brooks was postmaster at Gayville from 1861 to 1873. He was formerly president of the Bethel Shoe company and was at one time connected with the Gayville Manufacturing company. At the time of his death he was director of the White River National bank of Bethel.

NEW COMPANY LICENSED.

New York Mercantile Corporation Will Do Business in State.

Montpelier, March 22.—The secretary of a new company, granted a license to do business in this state, is the Colonial Manufacturing company to do business in this state. This company was chartered under the laws of New York with a capital of $25,000, divided into 240 shares of a par value of $100 each. The principal office of the company is located in Burlington. The company is organized for the purpose of doing a wholesale and retail mercantile business, with power to manufacture and import goods. Joseph Frank and M. H. Rosenberg of Burlington are two of the four incorporators of the company.

EAST CALAIS.

Glenn Burnham was in Plainfield Saturday. Joe Parsons was in Hardwick on Saturday. Fred Clark is very ill with Bright's disease. Mrs. Frank Marsh was in Hardwick Saturday. Gordon Smith of Marshfield was in town Tuesday. Webb Cate of North Montpelier was in town Tuesday. Frank Ladeau went to New Hampshire Monday on a visit.

Alonso Clayton of Barre was in town two days last week. Carrie White and Mrs. Lee Keniston were in Hardwick Friday.

Clifford Bliss went to Granville Thursday for a few days' visit.

The worst storm of the season came on Tuesday night and Wednesday. George Balestino and wife were in Montpelier and Hardwick last week.

C. J. Lamb and his brother, D. D. Lamb, were in Montpelier Thursday. H. M. Farnham and wife of East Montpelier were in town last week.

Ernest Wheeler and wife of Hardwick visited his brother, Levi Wheeler, Sunday.

Mrs. Bradley of New York state visited at the home of John Thomas last week.

Louie Brown has finished her work at Dean Holt's, and has returned to her home.

Frank Marsh has purchased of George Sanders an Edison phonograph—a large-sized one.

Mrs. Robert Tassie of South Woodsbury visited at the home of Elmer Brown Tuesday.

Harrison Mack and wife went to East Montpelier Monday to visit their son, Arthur, for a few days.

The East Calais Creamery company paid its patrons thirty-five cents per pound for butter fat, oil test.

John Slaton and wife have gone to East Montpelier to work for Murray Clark, who has broken his arm.

The body of Ned Marsh of Hardwick was brought here Wednesday and buried beside that of his father in this cemetery.

The rural delivery men failed to make their trip Wednesday on account of the storm and the badly drifted roads. This is the first time they have failed to cover their routes since the delivery was started two years ago.

The Dog.

I own a dog who is a gentleman. By birth most surely, since the creature can boast of a pedigree the like of which holds not a Howard or a Metternich.

By breeding. Since the walks of life he trod. He never wagged an unkind tail abroad. He never snubbed a nameless cur because Without a friend or credit card he was.

By pride. He looks you squarely in the face. Unshrinking and without a single trace Of either diffidence or arrogant Assertion such as upstarts often flaunt.

By tenderness. The littlest girl may tear With absolute impunity his hair. And pinch his sicken, flowing ears the while. He smiles upon her—yes, I've seen him smile.

By loyalty. No truer friend than he. Has come to prove his friendship's worth to me. He does not fear the master—knows no fear—But loves the man who is his master here.

By countenance. If there be nobler eyes, More full of honor and of honesties, In finer head, on broader shoulders found—Then have I never met the man or hound.

Here is the motto on my lifeboat's log: "God grant I may be worthy of my dog!" —New Orleans Times-Democrat.

MRS. A. M. HAGEMANN

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

made from simple native roots and herbs. For more than thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, regulating the functions perfectly and overcoming pain. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for child birth and the change of life.

Mrs. A. M. Hagemann, of Bay Shore, L. I., writes:—"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I suffered from a displacement, excessive and painful functions so that I had to lie down or sit still most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman so that I am able to attend to my duties. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see what relief it will give them."

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Therefore she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health.

The Scrap Book

He Put Him Off, All Right.

"Now, see here, porter," said he briskly. "I want you to put me off at Syracuse. You know we get in there about 6 o'clock in the morning, and I may oversleep myself. But it is important that I should get out. Here's a five dollar goldpiece. Now, I may wake up hard. Don't mind if I kick. Pay no attention if I'm ugly. I want you to put me off the train no matter how hard I fight. Understand?"

"Yes, sah," answered the sturdy Nubian. "It shall be dit, sah!"

The next morning the coin giver was awakened by a stentorian voice calling, "Rochester!"

"Rochester?" he exclaimed, sitting up. "Where's the porter?"

Hastily slipping on his trousers, he went in search of the negro and found him in the porter's closet, huddled up with his head in a bandage, his clothes torn and his arm in a sling.

"Well," says the drummer, "you are a sight. Why didn't you put me off at Syracuse?"

"Wha-at?" gasped the porter, jumping, as his eyes bulged from his head. "Was you de gemman dat give me a five dollar goldpiece?"

"Of course I was, you idiot!"

"Well, den, befoah de Lawd, who was dat gemman I put off at Syracuse?"

Stout Hearted Demetrius.

I remember also to have heard this spirited saying of that stoutest hearted of men, Demetrius. "Ye immortal gods," said he, "the only complaint which I have to make of you is that you did not make your will known to me earlier, for then I would sooner have gone into that state of life to which I now have been called. Do you wish to take my children? It was for you that I brought them up. Do you wish to take some part of my body? Take it. It is no great thing that I am offering you. I shall soon have done with the whole of it. Do you wish for my life? Why should I hesitate to return to you what you gave me? What ever you ask you shall receive with my

ALL WOMEN SUFFER

from the same physical disturbances, and the nature of their duties, in many cases, quickly drift them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints, organic troubles, ulceration, falling and displacements, or perhaps irregularity or so premonitory causing backache, nervousness, irritability, and sleeplessness. Women everywhere should remember that the medicine that holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female ills is made from simple native roots and herbs. For more than thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, regulating the functions perfectly and overcoming pain. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for child birth and the change of life.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. A. M. Hagemann, of Bay Shore, L. I., writes:—"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I suffered from a displacement, excessive and painful functions so that I had to lie down or sit still most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman so that I am able to attend to my duties. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see what relief it will give them."

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Therefore she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health.

The Scrap Book

He Put Him Off, All Right.

"Now, see here, porter," said he briskly. "I want you to put me off at Syracuse. You know we get in there about 6 o'clock in the morning, and I may oversleep myself. But it is important that I should get out. Here's a five dollar goldpiece. Now, I may wake up hard. Don't mind if I kick. Pay no attention if I'm ugly. I want you to put me off the train no matter how hard I fight. Understand?"

"Yes, sah," answered the sturdy Nubian. "It shall be dit, sah!"

The next morning the coin giver was awakened by a stentorian voice calling, "Rochester!"

"Rochester?" he exclaimed, sitting up. "Where's the porter?"

Hastily slipping on his trousers, he went in search of the negro and found him in the porter's closet, huddled up with his head in a bandage, his clothes torn and his arm in a sling.

"Well," says the drummer, "you are a sight. Why didn't you put me off at Syracuse?"

"Wha-at?" gasped the porter, jumping, as his eyes bulged from his head. "Was you de gemman dat give me a five dollar goldpiece?"

"Of course I was, you idiot!"

"Well, den, befoah de Lawd, who was dat gemman I put off at Syracuse?"

Stout Hearted Demetrius.

I remember also to have heard this spirited saying of that stoutest hearted of men, Demetrius. "Ye immortal gods," said he, "the only complaint which I have to make of you is that you did not make your will known to me earlier, for then I would sooner have gone into that state of life to which I now have been called. Do you wish to take my children? It was for you that I brought them up. Do you wish to take some part of my body? Take it. It is no great thing that I am offering you. I shall soon have done with the whole of it. Do you wish for my life? Why should I hesitate to return to you what you gave me? What ever you ask you shall receive with my

RAMLEH

TURKISH CIGARETTES

Few cigarettes, even among more expensive brands, are both "tasty" without being too heavy and smooth without being too mild. That's why everybody likes the RAMLEH.

RAMLEH Cigarettes are first to offer the real tobacco taste at an inexpensive price—the full seasoned flavor of fine Turkish tobacco blended to a mellow smoothness that continually delights.

Isn't this what you want? Try the RAMLEH and see.

10c. for 10

Sold Everywhere

S. ANARGYROS, Manufacturer 111 Fifth Avenue, New York

